TODAY TO BE CHINESE DAY AT SHANGHAI AUTO SHOW

Special Program Is Arranged With Many Features

KIDDIES HAVE DAY

Youngsters The Favored Guests At Big Exhibit Yesterday

Direct Tram Service To Automobile Show

ARRANGEMENTS were made yesterday for direct street car service from the downtown section to the Automobile Show grounds. Beginning at 8 o'clock tonight, trams will leave Range Road every fifteen minutes, proceeding South on Szechuen Road to Soochow Road, thence to the Bund, and out Rue du Consulat to the Automobile Show grounds at Verdun Gardens. These cars will bear placards, so they can be easily identified.

Today's program at the Auto Show has been arranged by the entertainment committee as a special Chinese Day, and the exhibitors have arranged a special list of displays and entertainment features for Chinese visitors. A Cantonese orchestra will play Oriental music and the Chin-Woo Athletic Association has volunteered its services for an exhibition of boxing, imitation, magic and other stunts arranged with a mixture of European and Oriental features that will attract the foreigner as well as the Chinese.

Invitations have been extended to the prominent Chinese officials, merchants and residents of Shanghai and elsewhere to attend today and the management of the Show announced last night that they have a large number of acceptances.

Chinese visitors have been frequent and interested spectators to the Show in the past few days, but today the attendants of the exhibits have been instructed to extend special courtesies to the Chinese.

KIDDIES OUT YESTERDAY

Yesterday the "kiddie" population of Shanghai was extended the hand of welcome that lasted the evening when the dancing class of Madam Kelvey presented a most pleasing and well thought out program of songs and dances.

The Municipal Band played yesterday in addition to the regular staff of Auto Show bands and orchestras.

One of the hits of the entertainment last night was the "chalk talk" given by THE EVENING STAR and THE CHINA PRESS cartoonist, John Wing Zane. Zane has a happy faculty of catching expressions with a few strokes o' chalk and giving his ideas further force with clever chatter.

The exhibit booths were thronged yesterday with interested visitors, and a great majority of them found their way to the booth of THE CHINA PRESS and THE EVENING STAR, where the tickets for the two motor cars are being given away with subscriptions.

TOMORROW 'OUTPORT' DAY

According to the program announced for the week Wednesday has been designated as "Outport Day" and a feature of the evening's entertainment will be the Spanish dancing in costume of Carmen and Carmencita. Miss Gracia Haimovitch will appear on the program for Wednesday which also includes other notable items.

The big day of the show, Thursday, has been set aside for Shanghai. Kiddies' Day, Chinese Day, and all the other days will be surpassed on Thursday, according to the plans for the twenty-four hours set aside for Shanghai.

An all-star entertainment program has been mapped out which will include numbers by Messrs. A. S. Gemby, Cody, Brook, James, the Silas Brothers, Barney Puck and Eddie—the black-face comedians—and other well

J. J. Abbott Voices Belief China Will Make Good On Loan Recently Defaulted

Chicago Financier Here On Way Home Has Optimistic View And Says He Believes That Peking Will Shortly Provide For Obligations

Mr. John J. Abbott, representing the Continental Commercial Bank Syndicate, whose loan to China representing some Gold 6,000,000 was defaulted by the Peking Government on November 1, said yesterday that he had every reason to believe that China will make good in the matter of the obligation.

Mr. Abbott and his secretary, Mr. R. H. Goodard, arrived in Shanghai from the capital yesterday and will remain here several days. Mr. Abbott has been in China for the past several months on business in connection with the loan. He said yesterday that his plans for the immediate future were somewhat nebulous, but he expects to sail for America on a steamer leaving shortly. It is possible that he will make a brief visit to Canton before sailing.

TWO FACTORS

There are two important factors in connection with the default on the loan in Mr. Abbott's opinion. One of these, he said, is the Chinese characteristic of giving no consideration to the element of time. I was in some measure due to this characteristic, he said, that preparations to meet the loan were delayed and put off from week to week until the date on which the loan became due came and passed. The other factor he spoke of was the change in the Cabinet post of Minister of Finance. Mr. Abbott pointed out that it was only on the day before the loan became due that Kao Ling-wei became Finance Minister. The time, he said, was too short for the new minister to grasp details concerning the loan and make provision for it before it became past due.

Mr. Abbott said he had made arrangements to leave Peking much earlier as he had intended to be back in America in time for the Christmas holiday, but he said he decided to remain in the Capital at the earnest request of officials of the Peking Government. As a result of conferences he has had recently, he said he believed that the Government now is fully conscious of the gravity of the matter of the default and he added that assurances that have been given to him are basis for the belief that provision will be made to take care of the loan in a reasonable length of time.

ANOTHER LOAN DUE

Mr. Abbott mentioned another loan of approximately the same amount to the Peking Government from the Pacific Development Company which falls due Thursday. While he would not voice an opinion whether this, too, would be defaulted, he said that he believed that provision will be made to care for it at Peking.

The loan of the Continental Commercial Bank Syndicate was for a term of two years on security of the wine and tobacco taxes. Mr. Abbott said the proposal he had advanced and which he thought would be accepted consisted of an arrangement for an extension with a continuance of the wine and tobacco tax security under certain conditions the nature of which has not been disclosed.

On the subject of the loan Mr. Abbott pointed out the disastrous effect on China's credit that failure to meet obligations when due entails.

He said that until China set about earnestly to make amends herself with the aid of some powerful group or powerful interests it could hardly be expected that further financial aid could be extended, as the American investing public in the face of a default on one loan would have nothing further to do with Chinese securities.

Mr. Abbott's visit to Shanghai is the first he has made in two years and he said tremendous changes in this comparatively short period were apparent to him. Shanghai, he said, was swiftly taking on the appearance of a world metropolis. He spoke in particular of the Auto Show, saying nowhere in America had he seen anything surpassing this exhibition.

NOT FRIENDLY IS FRENCH VIEW OF BRITISH ACTION

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Nov. 26.—Commenting on the announcement in London that the question is being discussed of sending a British ship to take off British subjects who may be endangered by the French withdrawal from Cilicia in consequence of the Franco-Kemalist Agreement, the Figaro remarks that it is not another Panther of Agadir, but neither is it a peaceful or friendly action.

WILL SEND SHIP

Paris, Nov. 27.—The British Ambassador in Paris has informed M. Bonnevay, the Acting Premier, that the British Cabinet proposes to send a warship to embark British nationals who wished to leave Cilicia.

DENY MOBILISATION

London, Nov. 26.—Though declaring that it refused to believe it, the Paris Matin has published a report that the British are concentrating troops at Cyprus with a view to landing in Cilicia.

This has evoked a categoric denial from London, where authoritative circles fail to understand how such an absurd report could have originated, unless in the fact that the British Government has signified her intention of sending a ship, if necessary, to bring off British subjects who might be anxious to leave Cilicia after the evacuation by the French.

NOT SO SERIOUS

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 26.—The Intransigeant emphasises that the disagreement between France and Great Britain is less acute than certain persons are endeavoring to make out. It would be childish to conclude from certain British comments that the whole of British opinion or even that of the whole of the British press is of an anti-French tone.

Does not the Times write this morning: "It must be admitted that Great Britain desires a compensation with France otherwise she would be, wittingly or unwittingly, placing an obstacle in the way of the success of the Conference and would thereby be injuring British interests and those of Europe.

"France is also in favor of the limitation of naval and land armaments, under reserve of the conditions compatible with her own security and that of Europe, conditions which no one, fully aware of the circumstances, can honestly call superfluous."

British Note On Turkish Pact Is Friendly In Tone

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Nov. 26.—The British Note with reference to the Franco-Kemalist Agreement has been received. It is couched in very friendly terms and expresses pleasure at France's assurance that the Agreement does not imply recognition of the Angora Government, either de jure or de facto

It takes cognisance of the fact that France will oppose any attack on Mesopotamia and expresses satisfaction at the assurances that France is pursuing the policy of the Entente and co-operation amongst the Allies which is the basis of Britain's policy. The Note asks if the time has not come to intervene in the Greco-Turkish conflict.

China Must Pay, Say N. Y. Bankers

BY JABIN HSU

(Staff Wire To THE CHINA PRESS)

Washington, Nov. 27.—Wen Shih-tsen spent this week end interviewing New York bankers who insist that China's credit is doomed unless immediate repayment is made of the Chicago Continental and Commercial Bank loan. Also the internal dispute in China must be brought to a readjustment at once. These two causes Mr. Wen was informed might preclude China's success at the Conference.

Mr. Wen also saw Mr. John R. Mott of the Y.M.C.A. who has consented to raise a building fund for Nanking. Mr. Mott is coming to China in February.

Amundsen Preparing For Seven-Year Expedition

CAPTAIN Roald Amundsen, the famous explorer, has arrived in the waters off Seattle, Washington, in his exploring ship Maud, to be fitted up for a new dash to the North Pole. After having her propellers replaced the ship was loaded up with provisions and material for his next expedition, which Captain Amundsen said he expected would take about seven years. The illustration shows the good ship Maud and Captain Amundsen, with [illegible] adopted child, Oak[illegible], who [illegible] the youngest of two Eskimo children that he adopted during his last trip North. Above are six members of the Eskimo crew who came back from the North on the explorer's last trip and who will accompany him on his new quest. It was the first time they sailed from the Arctic waters, and they still stick to their furs.

OLDEN GOLD AND NEW FLOW INTO AMERICAN HOARD

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Nov. 6.—Gold holdings of the United States, the world's sole creditor nation, mounted to a new high record last month, approximating the stupendous sum of $3,500,000,000. Statisticians estimate this to be 35 to 40 percent of the world's visible supply.

Of this amount the twelve Federal Reserve banks hold a total of about $930,000,000, the bulk of which reposes in the vaults of the local institution.

Metal which has been pouring into this country ever since the close of the war has averaged $75,000,000 monthly this year.

Some of the gold bears the stamp of nations born after the European cataclysm and some of the minted metal is almost as rare and strange to the average observer as an old time Spanish doubloon.

Part of the gold sent here by Germany to meet reparations payments to the Allies was said to be French coin (Louis D'or) exacted by Germany from France as indemnity after the Franco-Prussian war in 1870.

The amount of gold bars now held by the local Assay Office is not disclosed, but the machinery of that institution has been taxed to capacity recently reducing foreign bullion to requisite fineness for the domestic market. Bars valued at many millions of dollars have been shipped from this city to the Philadelphia mint in the last few months to be made into coin.

The many national and state banks of the city, together with affiliated trust companies, the New York Clearing House and almost countless private money changers and dealers in coin and bullion probably hold at this time a total of between $1,000,000,000 and $1,250,000,000.

China Beats Reno With Quick Acting Divorce Law

By Elsie McCormick

Shortly before leaving for China we heard a returned traveler lecture about the wrongs of the Chinese woman. The lecture was beautifully illustrated by some slides of the Great Wall and a view of the Porcelain Pagoda of Nanking that was torn down in 1830 or so, and there was a soft musical accompaniment which swung into "Sweet Rosie O'Grady," as the speaker told of the gentleness of her character and then rose to "She's a Dog-gone Dangerous Girl" as he described the quaintly picturesque quarrels of the sampan ladies.

Most of the audience wept softly into bandanas and lace-bound scraps of linen as they considered the seven causes of divorce and the fact that a husband is not amenable to the law unless he breaks his wife's bones, after which the clink of the first quarter in the collection-plate sent them flying to the exits. We were rather impressed ourselves, though we didn't quite see just how they would work the regulation which allows a husband to sell his wife for eloping with somebody else.

If the elopement "took," in the popular Shanghai parlance of the moment, how was the husband to find her? And even if he did find her, who would want to buy her? Somehow we didn't shed many tears over the sale of eloping wives. It seemed to us that it was the husband who was sold.

WANTED: A RENOVATOR

However, we did feel so sorry about the uneven divorce laws that we began to wish that the Great Prophet Ali Moni would rise out of the desert at Reno and leave for China in order to do a little missionary work.

Yesterday, however, when we read a translation of the latest laws of the Chinese Republic on the subject of marriage and divorce, we discovered that the tear-starting lecturer was as far behind the times as the lady who gives her favorite uncle a mustache cup for a Christmas present or who thinks that it's devilish to smoke Cubebs. China has the alimony idea all fenced up in a neat little legal corral and is feeding it grass through the slats.

Furthermore, by painstakingly beating the civil brush in the codes of the Western world, China has routed out an entirely new crime. For the first time since the faint dawn of history, when the Yellow Emperor cut the Yangtsze gorges and other remarkable capers, the Celestial country has been introduced to the lady known as Big Amy. Any Chinese wife who believes that monopoly is a better system than competition need only name her as co-respondent and she is entitled to a decree of divorce.

WIFE GIVEN NO CHANCE

Under the laws of the Empire, there were seven causes for divorce and they were all directed against the wife. Under the new code there are nine recognised reasons in addition to divorce by consent, and in seven of them the lady has a

RUSSIANS' DEATH KNELL SOUNDS IN VOLGA'S CLOSING

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 28.—The correspondents paint gloomy pictures of famine-stricken Russia. It now appears that there is no chance of saving the millions of sufferers. The Volga is now closed, leaving the starving people in the famine districts blockaded by the winter, which bars the only way of escape.

Relief is only capable by sledge but many horses are dying of the lack of fodder and it is now expected that it will be impossible to harness a sufficient number of sleighs to convey available supplies to the destitute villages.

The League of Nations has appointed Colonel Sir Samuel Hoare, M. P., as Deputy High Commissioner for the care of Russian refugees in Europe, as Dr. Nansen, who is in charge of this work, is overworked and requires assitance.

CHINA TO GET SQUARE DEAL ON PAST AS WELL AS LAND INFRINGEMENTS OF FUTURE

Root Principles Not To Condone Powers Acts But To Assist China To Recover And Retain Her Place As Sovereign Nation—Posts And Extra-territoriality Now In The Conference

SHANTUNG QUESTION MUST WAIT

Conference Idea Now To Tackle Easy Matters First And Let Big Controversies Wait Till Good Feeling Prevails Among The Delegates

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, November 27.—The Disarmament Conference Committee is now taking up two matters that hold deep interest for the Chinese—Extraterritorality and the abolition of foreign postoffices from China.

Wang Chung-hui will formally present the former topic to the Conference and it is now thought likely that the powers will agree to relinquish extraterritorial rights at the end of a definite period, meantime stating a plan for progressive modifications looking to eventual abolition of the system.

Alfred Sze will present the case against the postoffices. Minister Koo has indicated that he will later take up the question of foreign garrisons, railway guards, police boxes and wireless installations.

The Conference now is in full swing and the direction of its progress is clear. China's ten points have been temporarily seplaced by Root's four principles in order to follow the agenda, though as each part of the agenda is taken up, China will be asked to present points contemplated therein under her ten points.

By this method each question will be referred to a sub-committee of delegates so as to avoid the clash that is possible were China to follow up her initiative with immediate presentation of her demands in full.

In this way it is possible that points such as customs' tariffs, post-offices may be settled first and when the Conference is on a basis of good feeling, knottier points such as Manchuria and Shantung can be raised.

It is officially denied that Ex-Secretary Root's points contemplate the sanction of part infringements, considering only the future. Instead, it is planned first to determine the basis of future relations, consolidate such Chinese autonomy as it has been, discuss past infringements of sovereignty and to determine the manner for the removal of these infringements.

This contemplates future conferences with progressive and periodical readjustments.

Meantime it is indicated that it is impossible to discuss the evacuation of Shantung until some other questions are settled.

Rumors of a deadlock in the Conference are declared to be grossly exaggerated since harmony still prevails in every quarter.

NO ECONOMIC URGE

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 31.—Asserting that there was no actual population pressure in Japan, B. Lenox Simpson, adviser to the Chinese Government at Peking, today told members of the China Society of America that but little more than a half million Japanese had emigrated to Korea, Formosa and Manchuria in the last twenty years.

He said 1920 statistics showed a great decrease in the population growth and that Japan had in her own home territory enough land to take care of 40 years' normal increase. He added that in his belief the Japanese really desired access to Anglo-Saxon America and Australia because the living standards there were higher and the cash returns correspondingly greater.

In the matter of China he said the progress of the Chinese should prompt the Washington conferees on Pacific and Armament problems to see that China was assured ownership and control of her communications and railways and given tariff autonomy.

"I have been informed," Mr. Simpson declared, "that Great Britain is prepared to take the initiative at the Washington Conference in offering to retrocede the Weihaiwei leased territory to China provided all Powers with similar leased territories follow an identic policy."

Triple Alliance To Develop Germany Is Stinnes' Plan

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

London, Nov. 25.—The purpose of the visit of Hugo Stinnes to London was to arrange an alliance with British and American capitalists for the development of Germany and also to further the Stinnes contracts whereby he is arranging a triangular corner on the Russian market.

His feelers have not yet evoked a favorable response. He is also testing British sentiment regarding the possibility of a moratorium on German reparations.

Kiddies Night At The Show Has Arabian Entertainment Touch

BY SINDBAD THE SAILOR

Now when it was the next night and that was the THOUSAND AND SECOND NIGHT, Scheherezade said to the King: "Allah upon thee—Shanghai has the first Auto Show of the East with three million taels wealth in cars, and tonight I am weary of the wines of your table and the yarns of this seaman, Sindbad—"

The king being a good scout and remembering that it was kiddes' night at the auto show, said, "Alli, Alli—Let's go!"

We did.

And now when it is almost dawn, I remember the ride to the Shanghai Auto Show, the myriad lights, the display of wealth in automobiles, the bands and orchestras with their music—all these we saw—and were properly enthused until Effendi Ellis of the Cafe Carlton announced the feature of the night—the dancing class of Madame Kelvey.

Home was never like this. Arabia in all her glory could never bring together with all her genii the dancing fairies we saw.

Back through the ages in a land called Scotland there was a wild tribe which danced the Highland Fling and a sword dance, but last night four of the fairest of Shanghai's own, Kathleen Wilder, Doreen Lent, Aida Trueman and Irene Quelch, danced the Highland Fling and the Sword Dance.

GIRLS' SWORD DANCE

In the place of the black-beared old warriors and the squealing bags there were four wee girlies dancing like down over the keen edges of their daddies' sabres.

Two sailors followed them with a dance of the sea when Peggy and Clay Crane, brother and sister, danced and sang together with songs and pantomime of the briny.

Nellie and Florrie Field will some day dance for Zeigfield and their toe dance last night was proof.

Cuba and the fiestas of the land of sugar cane and chili peppers must have sent their envoys to the Show, but anyway when Kathleen Wilder, Irene Quelch, Olive Harris, and Yuvonue Guinard danced, the King, Scheherezade and myself decided there was no use in traveling South. Going to stay in Shanghai. Why move when the Spanish Main is brought home in dance and song?

Dancing was the order of the evening and even Albert Alexander, the drummer in the Carlton Orchestra who was called in to bang up the pep of the crowd, danced in his chair.

Yet another and an outstanding feature was the rapid-fire cartooning of Zane of THE EVENING STAR. Beginning with a series of topical and popular sketches and winding up with swiftly done cartoons of prominent figures of the show, he held the big audience in the ball room to strictest attention and drew a heavy round of applause.

OFFICIALS INVITED

Today Chinese officials, chiefs and merchants have been invited to the show and according to the edict of the Monsour of the Auto Show, the day has been nominated Chinese Day.

The leaders of the entertainment committee yesterday secured an orchestra to play Cantonese Music, the Chin Woo Athletic Association and also a group of musicians and performers. These have been sentenced to provide an entertainment of Boxing, Imitations, and Magic and the Effendi Monsours of the Auto Show said last night they expected to release them then the foreigners and Chinese of Shanghai have had an opportunity to enjoy their skill, tonight.

And when the King told all these things to Scheherezade, she sighed and said, "How sweet is thy story, and where is this compared with that I would relate to you on the coming night and the King suffer me to survive?"

And when it was the next tonight.

Carlton Goes Strong At Automobile Show

In passing about encomiums applicable to the Auto Show its promoters and others responsible for its success, a large platterful of the same should be presented the Carlton management and orchestra for the efficient service and pleasurable entertainment they are providing in the big ballroom.

Manager Ellis' staff of servants took over the forty—more or less—odd acre expanse of tables and exacting guests with as much suavity and ease as though they were working at the old stand.

And the orchestra has established itself more solidly in the affections of the dancing public than ever. Playing to a crowd which calls for encore after encore, Frank Barron's able aggregation of jazz artists have been indefatigable and have been dispensing music more dance-impelling than ever. For proof of it, just glance into the ballroom any of these evenings.

To avoid misapprehensions it might be well to state that the Carlton's regular dining service at the cafe is not being interfered with in any way by the show.

For the latest fashions and innovations in dress the women of Shanghai know they should read THE EVENING STAR. Anne Rittenhouse is an authority and writes of styles every day. 'Phone Central 671 and place your subscription now.

PARTISANS RETREATING

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Vladivostok, Nov. 27.—The Cossack population of Grodekovo has resolved to request the Government to remove the Semenoff troops from Grodekovo, replacing them with Kappel troops.

The partisans on November 25 fired on a passenger train at 52nd Verst, wounding one person. On the same date they destroyed two bridges on the Souchan line and damaged a bridge at 53rd Verst, four Japanese being wounded in the explosion.

The occupation of Anutchino is confirmed. The partisans are retreating to the North and it is reported that Habarovsk is sending reinforcements to Iman.

The Chinese who stabbed his wife to death last Saturday and seriously wounded a Chinese police constable attached to Louza station who is said to have been intimate with the woman, will be tried in the Mixed Court for murder as a result of the inquest held on the body of the victim. The Chinese, Ma Shen-sz by name, knifed his wife after waylaying her in an alleyway in Sinza district, then went to the house of the policeman and stabbed him while he slept. The constable was taken to hospital and his condition is reported as serious.

URGES UNITY OF NORTH TO STOP SOUTH'S MARCH

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 25.—The birthday of General Tsao Kun on the 21st signalised the opening of the Paotingfu conference, General Wu Pei-fu on November 22 brought forward the matter of the Southern expedition and urged that the Tuchuns and other provincial leaders, in view of the financial difficulties of the Central Government, should unite in providing funds for an army of defence.

General Tsao Kun and the Fengtien delegates supported General Wu and it was resolved that each province should furnish a report to the conference stating to what extent it was prepared to go in supplying money, men and arms and ammunition.

An official denial is given to the report that trouble has occurred between General Chen Kuang-yuan (Tuchun of Kiangsi) and Shen Hung-ying (one of the Kuangsi leaders). It is stated that General Shen is working amicably with General Hsiao An-kou (one of General Chen Kuang-yuan's men) in the measures of defense that are being taken at Tayuling.

General Chen Kuang-yuan is reported to have raised locally sufficient funds to carry out the defense of Kiangsi, and he is not expected to contribute to the maintenance of troops from other provinces, specially as Kiangsi may have to bear the brunt of attack if the expedition ever offers a serious menace.

THE FIFTH WISE MAN

"I'll wait a while before buying my life insurance," said the first wise man. He had to pay 15 per cent more because the cost had increased.

"Next year will be just as good," said the second wise man. He died six months later.

"I'm in no hurry—I can get insurance any time," said the third wise man. He discovered his error later, when the doctor told him he was uninsurable.

"I'll have more money for insurance in a couple of years," said the fourth wise man. But a reckless chauffeur ran over him, and the day when he can buy insurance has passed.

Now there was a FIFTH man and he bought his Life Insurance from the Asia Life Insurance Company when he had the chance. He isn't worrying any. Neither is his family.

China Beats Reno With Quick Acting Divorce Law

shapes of acting as drum-major for the alimonial band. These are the reasons why a Chinese court may grant a decree of divorce:

(1) Because one of the parties commits bigamy.
(2) Because the wife is unfaithful.
(3) Because the husband has been convicted of unfaithfulness.
(4) When she or he intends to kill the other.
(5) When one of them is ill-treated or highly insulted by the other which makes it impossible for them to live together.
(6) When she ill-treats or highly insults the kin or relatives of his parents (aunt and uncle).
(7) When she is ill-treated or insulted by his parents or relatives (aunt and uncle).
(8) When either of them leaves the other maliciously.
(9) When one of them does not know the whereabouts or the certainty of life of the other for a period of over three years.

NO SELF-MADE WIDOWS

We are especially taken with the Number Four provision, which assumes that husbands and wives aiming to end each other's careers should give at least thirty days' notice. China may have a liking for self-made men, but she is evidently not so keen about self-made widows.

One should note that there is a subtle difference between Clause 2 and Clause 3. Friend Husband must be convicted of having a roving fancy; Friend Wife need only be suspected of it. It doesn't say, of course, by whom he is to be convicted, but we imagine that it is by something a little more official than his own conscience. However, the code is more liberal in many respects than those of the West, for we doubt that even in Reno a lady could get a divorce because she was insulted by her husband's aunt.

The only carbon in the spark-plug is the provision which makes the father guardian of the children, regardless of whether or not he is adjudged the guilty party by the divorce action. Exception is made in cases where the children are under five years of age and also where the parents reached an agreement between themselves, as is usual in cases where the divorce is a matter of mutual consent. The court reserves the right to appoint a guardian when it seems advisable.

CAN SEND SHERIFF

Instead of returning weeping to her parents, as the lecturer described her to the tune of, "You Made Me What I Am Today, I Hope You're Satisfied," the modern Chinese divorcee can dispatch the Oriental equivalent of the deputy sheriff after her soured sweetie with orders to remove any detachable strings of cash that might be adhering to his person.

"When the court makes a decree of divorce the female party shall be given reasonable compensation for her maintenance and support," babbles the code. "The male party asking for a decree shall only be allowed to be divorced. No compensation shall be given him, nor shall he be adjudged owner of his wife's property." Which is nearly where a husband about to retire as such gets off in a court of the West.

In divorces by mutual consent, the regulations demand merely that the couple inform the court of their desire and the Wedding March is accordingly played backward.

The lecturer who described the bride being dragged shrieking to the red sedan-chair while the pianist played, "You Made Me Love You, I Didn't Want to Do It," is hereby referred to that part of the code which makes duress marriages illegal.

RULE OUT STEPMOTHERS

Consent of both parents must be obtained, but the Chinese law, which doesn't seem to like stepmothers any better than the fairy-books do, has provided that such irascible ladies may be ruled off the course by a majority vote of the other relatives in case their permission is withheld.

"Marriage is a man and woman's life contract, so special care must be exercised," the code says. "A man and a woman have naturally not so much experience as their parents, and might forget the future, and thinking of the present only, enter into a marriage contract."

On the subject of support, the code has a few brief and well-chosen words. "It is a matter of fact that a husband shall support his wife, but if he is very poor, and his wife is rich enough to support him, his wife shall support him." Likewise, "All marriage expenses shall be borne by the husband, but if he is insolvent the wife shall pay the same." Insolvent husbands, however, are about as popular on the marriage market as a pickle vendor would be in a mumps ward, so this provision is not likely to cut much ice in China.

MONOGAMY IN LAW

The most revolutionary provision of all is that which states unequivocably that neither one of a couple shall marry twice. "This law is to prevent a man having a number of wives and likewise a woman having a number of husbands provided, that if a married couple are separated by a court's decree or the marriage is void, this law does not apply."

Of course, a glimpse at rich men's domiciles throughout the country proves that "second keys are still jingling," but the mere fact that there is such a law on the statute books means a social stride in Jack the Giant Killer's Seven League boots. At least two Chinese husbands have been hauled by their Number One wives before the Mixed Court for bigamy, which is something our lecturer failed to touch on when he described the sorrow in the multiple establishments and the pianist played, "I Can't Be True To One Little Girl When Another Little Girl Comes Along."

RASMUSSEN IS FREE; WOUNDED BY THE BANDITS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, Nov. 28.—Mr. J. Rasmussen, the Asiatic Petroleum Company's upcountry inspector who was captured on Bamboo River by bandits on October 1 and held to ransom, has been released, and arrived in Canton yesterday afternoon.

On medical advice, Mr. Rasmussen was brought down to Hongkong by a representative of the Asiatic Petroleum Company. His father, mother and brother and Dr. Lyon-Brown awaited the steamer's arrival this afternoon. Mr. Rasmussen was taken to hospital in an ambulance directly.

Dr. Lyon-Brown informed Reuter's representative that the wounds, of which there were four, were not serious. His patient was cheerful but required absolute rest. Mr. Rasmussen, Senior, stated that his son had received a flash-wound in the right hip, another in the back of the left thigh and a third in the right calf.

On the day of his capture, the brigands compelled their captive to walk, while wounded, from one o'clock in the afternoon till midnight.

In order to escape from their pursuers, the brigands moved Mr. Rasmussen from place to place. They sometimes hid in the fastnesses of Kwangsi. The captive suffered great hardship and at one time was laid down with malaria. Chinese soldiers and police rescued him on Saturday.

The patient was not in a condition to relate a coherent story of his release.

Mr. Rasmussen's cook-boy accompanied him throughout his captivity and was released at the same time.

PARTISANS BLOW UP BRIDGES TO HAMPER JAPAN

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, Nov. 24.—The Partisan movement is spreading in the southern part of the Maritime Province occupied by the Japanese. As a means of self-defense and of stopping exports, the Partisans direct their activities against the Ussuri Railway, destroying bridges, tearing up tracks, blowing up Japanese and Merkuloff's trains and otherwise hindering the communication of the enemies of the Russian people. Passenger service has been completely interrupted.

Experienced civil engineers, who have been sent to investigate the damage done to the railway by the Partisans, have found that the mining of the tracks in many places appeared to have been done by expert sappers and that in some places appliances of the latest Japanese construction were found.

Russian Opera Co.

The Russian Light Opera Company has caught on. Last night they played the Merry Widow to a house that had mighty few vacant stalls, and the work was excellent. Tuneful melodies and a high standard of acting made the evening a delight even to those in the audience who did not understand Russian, and a goodly portion did not know a word of it.

Lehar's opera gives many opportunities to both principals and chorus of which the Russian Company took such good care that it is difficult to mention one above another, except to say that Mr. Bravin as Count Danilo and Miss Souriova in the title role evoked the most prolonged applause. We therefore bow to the judgment of the house. For the benefit of the non-Russians in the audience, a brief scenario of the opera was on the program.

Sylvia will be given tonight and Gypsy Love tomorrow night.

Another Illusion Gone Glimmering

The bounds of illusion are elastic but sometimes they may be stretched a bit too far, as witness the case of Sung Yoong-kung, beggar par excellence.

Sung was busily engaged in his professional capacity on Hart Road on Sunday and was making a powerful appeal to passers-by, nearly all of whom were smitten with compassion for his apparent misery. Begging being one of the things proscribed by the Municipal regulations, a Sikh policeman requested the mendicant several times to move on. But Sun didn't move until a foreign sergeant came along. And when the foreign sergeant also reminded him of the rules Sung held up what appeared to be a badly mangled hand and said that he was feeling too miserable and weak to do anything except sit there and try and get what relief he could from the receipt of coppers and silver pieces proffered him by the kindhearted.

So they escorted Sung gently to the police station and gently unwound the blood-soaked bandage from his hand, with the idea of rendering him aid. They found his hand in absolutely normal condition, without a scratch upon it and the Mixed Court yesterday assigned Sung a cell for one week.

Navy Bests Army In Mud To Tune Of 7-0 Score

Players Have To Stop Many Times To Have Faces Dug From The Soil

New York, Nov. 27.—In a game featured by rain, and mud and slipper ball, and ineffectual attempts at ground gaining, the United States Naval Academy from Annapolis defeated today the United States Military Academy from West Point by the score of 7-0.

The Navy earned their one touchdown by a 15-yard end run from near midfield, a 5-yard penalty to the Army and a series of line smashing gains, in the second period by Koehler, Conroy, King and Barchet. King kicked the goal.

Aside from the one touchdown scored neither goal was ever in serious danger. The going was too heavy, slippery and uncertain for fast running, and the ball was too wet for safe handling.

The Navy averaged 182 3-7 lbs. on the line and in the back field 161 1-2, while the Army tipped the scales at 186 2-7 on the line and at 166 1-2 in the back field.

NAVY WON THE TOSS

Captain Larsen of the Navy won the toss and kicked off in a heavy rain on a field that was soaked and soft. King, the Navy tackle kicked the ball into play to the Army's 15-yard line where Myer, the West Point Right End caught it and ran it back to the Army's 45 yard line.

After two line plunges for short gains French broke through the Navy line for a first down on the Annappolis' 42 yard line, where the Army was penalised five yards for off-side. Three more line plunges took the ball to another first down for the Army on the Navy's 38 yard line. Mulligan here tried for a field goal for the Army, but the ball passed under the line.

Conroy made five yards for the Navy in a line-buck following which the Navy grounded a long forward pass, bringing the ball again to the Navy's 36-yard line. The Army knocked down one of Conroy's forward passes, but the navy, retaining the ball, followed with a line plunge and a punt to the Army's 33-yard line, where Wood, the Army Left Halfback attempted a pass which was knocked down but finally punted to the Navy's 10 yard line.

Koehler, for the Navy, made it first down on a dash through right tackle to his own 38 yard line, and then punted the ball to the Army's 25 yard line where Richard replaced Lawrence at right Halfback for the Army.

SECOND PERIOD

Commencing the second period, the Army was held on its 20 yard line. On the second lineup Wood punted to Barchet of the Navy who ran to the Navy's 48 yard line. The Navy was unable to gain on runs so punted to the Army's 20-yard line, where they checked two Army plunges and an end run. Wood punted then to Barchet on the Navy's 45-yard line.

On the first lineup the Navy swept around West Point's right end to the Army's 30-yard line before he was checked by French. The Army here was penalised 5 yards for offside and the Navy got the ball on the Army 23-yard line. Conroy broke through the Army center for eight yards. White replaced Myers at right end for the Army.

Koehler took the ball to the Army 10 yard line for a first down, where King and Barchet in turn each gained four on two reversed line plunges, and Koehler added the last two yards for another first down just two inches from the Army goal line. On the second plunge Conroy went over for the touchdown. King kicked the goal. Score Navy 7, Army nil.

Wood kicked off for the Army, Barchet catching the ball on the Navy 10 yard line and running to midfield. Three line plunges made the first down on the Army 36 yard line, where Conroy broke outside and raced to the Army 21 yard line. Clarke here replaced Garbisch at right guard for the Army. King was held on the Army 21 yard line, when the Navy dropped back for a try at a field goal but the pass was fumbled and the ball went to the Army on the 21 yard line, when the half ended.

SECOND HALF

The Army kicked off to Barchet on the Navy 10 yard line. Barchet ran the ball back 18 yards before downed. Three drives into the Soldiers' line gave the Sailors a first down on their own 40 yard line, where the Army defense stiffened. Barchet punted from near midfield to the Army 25 yard line where French was dropped as he caught the punt. Wilhide suffered an injured knee in the first scrimmage and was replaced and Noyes replaced Conroy at quarter for the Navy.

The Army could not make an impression on the Navy line and was soon forced to punt to the Navy 39 yard line. On the first lineup Barchet made 18 yards, but the Navy was penalised 15 yards for holding. After Wood punted, the Navy was penalised five yards more and the ball went back to the Army as a penalty. The Soldiers however were again forced to punt. Barchet got the ball and was downed on the Navy 49 yard line. After some steady playing the Navy made another first down in the middle of the field where Dodd replaced Richardson.

In the second scrimmage Noyes fumbled the ball which went to the Army on its own 40 yard line.

Time was constantly being taken out for the players to wipe the mud from the ball and from their hands and faces. The Army forward passed but it failed on a fumble. Wood punted over the Navy goal line and the Navy with ball again on its 20 yard line was forced by the heavy going and the impossibility of making appreciable gains, to punt again to the Army 45 yard line when the third period ended.

FOURTH PERIOD

On the first down on the Navy 38 yard line, the Army attempted a drive through the Annapolis line but a fumble gave the ball to the Navy. A succeeding punt was nullified by a penalty and two ineffectual plunges and Barchet was forced to punt again from the Army 40 yard line to the 20 yard mark. After holding the Soldiers on downs, the Navy punted again, French catching the ball on the 40 yard line and running to the midfield.

On the first lineup French went through right wing, twice reversing his direction for a run to the Sailors 22 yard line. Three smashing line plunges gave the Army a first down on the Navy 8-yard line. After another plunge which failed to gain French tossed forward but the ball was intercepted. On the first lineup the Navy was penalised to their own six yard line and were forced to a punt, the ball going to the Army on the Navy 30 yard line when the game ended at the final score of Navy 7, Army 0.

Football Season Is Not All Defeat For Minors

Small College Elevens Have Their Days Of Great Joy Too

(BY DANIEL)

New York, Nov. 10.—"How about devoting one of your days to the minor, football teams—their joys and woes? They take a lot of beatings and get mighty little in return." Thus does a correspondent suggest a good topic on the great game. Verilly the little fellows take a lot of beatings, but they seem to enjoy the fun.

It's not all defeat with the minor teams. To nearly every one of them comes a day of great joy which makes up for many Saturdays of disappointment and chagrin.

Consider the pride felt by the men of the little Center College team when their quarterback "Bo" McMillen made his 37-yard run through the Harvard field for the only touch down of the game. And then how they must have gloried when Yale fell before the Crimson, and again at the recollection that Princeton, the third of the "Big Three" had been beaten by Yale.

Imagine the satisfaction which came to Middlebury when it defeated Williams, which had done so well at Yale, Middlebury had been whipped by Harvard, Dartmouth and the Army. It had been mauled without mercy, but it had enough left to take old Williams into camp.

There was a day of joy too for Amherst; but Amherst has been rather joyous since that sad afternoon when it opened the season with a beating by Springfield. The victory over Columbia made up for that setback. Then came a tie with Tufts, a success against Union, and that much desired victory over the Massachusetts Aggies, Amherst's neighbor, right in old Amherst.

Only those who hail from either of the colleges in that Massachusetts town or from the town itself know the intense rivalry which exists between them. Amherst College's cup of joy is filled to overflowing.

GREAT TRAIN AT R. P. I.

Imagine too the celebration up on the hill in Troy after Rensselaer Poly had trample Stevens by 23 to 0. They do say up that way that this year's eleven is far and away the greatest which yet has worn the Maroon of R. P. I. Springfield, which held Brown scoreless, beat Stevens too, but the Engineers got 18 points against 34. R. P. I. is so het up that it may go looking for trouble in the big company next season.

There was unbounded satisfaction at Lancaster when Franklin and Marshall got a tie with Swarthmore, which had tied Pennsylvania and scored on Princeton. And talk about your high old times at Washington, Pa., after Washington and Jefferson's fine victory over Lehigh, 14 to 7.

Princeton Looks 10 Years Ahead For Its Recruit

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 25.—Head Coach Bill Roper of the Princeton University football team has in mind at least one recruit for the Tigers of 1930. He is carefully training his young son, Bill Roper, Jr., 10 years old, in all the intricacies of the game.

Little Bill acts as quarterback, and although not much larger than the ball, boots it over the bar with amazing ease in dropkick practice. Another time, with his dad as center, he flings passes to imaginary ends or follows in the steps of Dom Lourie by dashing around end for touchdowns.

CHANG'S "LOAN" TO BANKS STILL IS UNCLAIMED

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 14.—No settlement of the controversy between General Chang Tso-lin and the Peking Banks, regarding the terms on which his $3,000,000, would be handed over, is yet reported. General Chang is said to be adhering to the conditions he laid down before these funds reached Peking.

The publication of these terms raised considerable discussion in Chinese and foreign circles, and while it is admitted that the drastic measure he suggested regarding the Note Issue Department might have a salutary effect in the future, it is pointed out that no Government could promise compliance with such a suggestion. Moreover it is pointed out that the conditions of the two banks is due rather to the exactions of Fengtien on their silver supply than to an ever issue of notes.

Other parties are coming to the assistance of the Peking banks. Hankow has sent $300,000 each to the Banks of China and Communications. The expected contribution from Shanghai is not yet reported. The run on the banks continued today with scarcely any change.

SHANTUNG RUN ENDS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 24.—General Tien Chung-yu has dispatched a circular telegram to the other provinces announcing that the run on the Banks of China and Communications in Shantung has ended.

Two Girl Graduates Of American School Pass College Exams

Misses Margaret C. Blain and Helen Smith, of the 1921 graduating class of the Shanghai American School, passed unconditioned the entrance examinations to Wellesley and Mt. Holyoke Colleges respectively according to word received here.

The Examining Board, which sets all the examinations for six of the large Eastern woman's colleges of a grade, reclined to send the examination questions to Shanghai so that those desiring to try them could do so immediately after graduation in June. This necessitated their going to the colleges a week earlier in September, the long interval intervening since graduation making the test all the more trying.

Miss Blain and Miss Smith are the first pupils to go direct from the school and try the examinations for the entrance into these high grade institutions.

Meiji Principles To Guide, Says Regent

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Nov. 26.—The Regent, announcing the regrettable causes for his assumption of the office, in an address to the nation through the Premier, views with anxiety the grave responsibility devolving on his youthful shoulders.

"I can only hope to attend to state affairs most assiduously and in accordance with the administrative principle laid down by the Emperor Meiji at the Restoration, faithfully obeying the path indicated by His Majesty and thus ensuring the furtherance of friendship with the Powers and the promotion of the national welfare.

"It is my sincerest desire that the people shall unite their efforts for the enhancement of the national welfare and prosperity, sympathising with the determination with which I have now assumed office."

In concluding, the Regent expressed his sincere hope for the Emperor's recovery in health.

Vienna Rejoices Now Oedenburg Is Cleared Of Reds

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 27.—The occupation of the south of Burgenland by the Austrian troops under the direction of Entente officers is being continued without incident in spite of serious technical difficulties.

The decision of the Conference of Ambassadors demanding the complete evacuation of the Oedenburg district by the Hungarian Red bands has been received with great satisfaction at Vienna. The Temps understands that this decision will enable the Foreign Affairs Committee to adopt the Venice Agreement on Tuesday and the National Council to ratify it the following day.

Want C. C. Wang To Aid In Rail Parley

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 24.—General Li Yuan, Special Delegate to the forthcoming conference at Manchulie between representatives of China and Chita, has telegraphed to the Government urging the departure of Mr. C. C. Wang as an expert in railway affairs.

It is reported that Mr. Wang does not wish to attend the conference, but officially it is stated that he cannot leave until a decision has been reached regarding the matters to be discussed at the conference.

While an agenda has not been drawn up by the Chinese the conference is expected to discuss questions relating to the Chinese Eastern Railway and frontiers affairs in general. It is expected that the Chita representatives will introduce a claim to participate in guarding the Chinese Eastern Railway. The conference will take place some time next month.

France Is Asked To Vote Million For Sleeping Sickness

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 26.—M. Augagneur, the Governor-General of French Equatorial Africa, speaking before the Colonial Committee of the Chamber, declared notably that the military effectives in this Colony might be reduced but insisted on the maintenance of the regiment in the Chari district.

He then discussed the question of the Brazzaville Railway. M. Augagneur concluded his speech with a request for the raising of credit allowed by the Colonial Budget from 500,000 to 1,000,000 francs in order efficaciously to combat sleeping sickness.

STUDENTS STONE FRENCH WINDOWS IN TURIN RIOT

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Nov. 26.—A telegram from Turin reports that crowds of students excited at the press reports of statements, attributed to M. Briand at Washington regarding the Italian Army, attacked the French Consulate today, smashing windows and damaging furniture.

Police were rushed up in lorries and dispersed the students. The Italian Ambassador in Paris called upon the Acting Premier and expressed regret at the incident.

FRENCH PLACE BLAME

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 26.—French public opinion, whilst deploring the incidents which have occurred at Turin, is unanimous in not confusing the opinion of the Italian people with that of a few hysterics.

According to the Temps those who are principally to blame are those who tell the Italian people as a fact that the head of the French Government had insulted the Italian Army and that, moreover, France is a militarist nation, who, desires to reduce Italy to powerlessness and destitution.

Paris, Nov. 27.—The Liberte publishes photographs of the monument erected to the memory of Italian soldiers killed during the war on the plateau of Ligny and also of the monument to French soldiers killed in the war on Mount Touba.

False reports, writes the Liberte, cannot cause us to forget the brotherhood of arms which unites the two countries. Moreover, the denial of Signor Schanzer, the Italian delegate at the Conference at Washington, and the declarations of the Premier, Signor Bonomi, and of the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs have closed the regrettable incidents of Turin and Naples.

ENQUIRY IS STARTED

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Nov. 27.—The newspapers state that the French Government considers the Franco-Italian incident closed, but has telegraphed to Washington asking that an enquiry be held with regard to the source of the false information, cabled from Washington.

EXPRESS REGRET

Paris, Nov. 27.—The Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Marquis delia Torretta, read today in the Chamber and Senate a telegram from Signor Schanzer emphatically denying the report that M. Briand had ridiculed the Italian Army. The Premier, Signor Bonomi, expressed regret that the Italian newspapers had dared to publish such a false and ridiculous report.

MISS MARJORY CLARK

Russian Envoy Forced To Quit Tokio Office For Lack Of Funds

M. Pacinal Krupensky, Russian Ambassador to Tokio, penniless and unable to bear further the financial strain of keeping up his office, is leaving Japan December 3 for Shanghai, according to the Shanghai Nippo of yesterday.

M. Krupensky, who is accompanied by Lieut.-General Carloshovsky, expects to sail from here for France according to the report. The Russian official has been his country's representative at Tokio for the past six years but for some time has received no funds from Moscow and in order to keep the embassy open and maintain himself was forced to dispose of his household furnishings and sell his collection of Japanese pictures, regarded as one of the best in Japan.

Auge, consul; Vice Consul Bonnafous, Capt. Roques, Vice-Consul Orlandi, Commander Constantin, Interpreter Chang, Ensign Lediberdaire, A. du Pac de Marsoulies, S. K. Chen, N. T. Yang, Magistrate Y. C. Count de Fleurian plans to leave for Peking today.

DOES NOT MISS PALTRY MILLIONS SENT TO PEKING

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 25.—It is officially announced today that the Provincial leaders are rallying around the Central Government in order to prevent a change in the Cabinet until after the Washington Conference. Promises of support have been received from most of the Northern Leaders and at the Paotingfu conference on Monday next, the whole question is to be threshed out in detail, as well as several questions of policy.

The effect of the arrangement made with the other Chinese Banks for repayment to the Banks of China and Communications of large amounts advanced to them in respect of bonds has considerably strengthened the financial situation, and it is confidently asserted that the two banks will be able to pull through without accepting General Chang Tso-lin's terms for the use of his funds.

The knowledge that $3,000,000 in silver reached Peking from Mukden on the 21st instant has also tended to relieve the stress, however, while the removal of that sum from Fengtien will have no material effect, as General Chang has a further $32,000,000, in silver at Mukden.

Britain Asking France Why Delay

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Nov. 27.—Britain has sent a Note to France asking by what means France proposes to safeguard Germany's other creditors if the Wiesbaden Agreement is enforced and declaring that Britain views with concern France's delay in ratifying the financial Convention of Aug. 13.

Casualties From Belfast Riot Are 27 Dead; 92 Hurt

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 26.—An official statement gives the casualties resulting from the Belfast disturbances during the past week as 13 Protestants and 14 Catholics killed and 61 Protestants and 31 Catholics wounded.

China Captive or Free?
M. $6.00 net
By GILBERT REID

This book divulges acts hitherto kept secret, and brings more clearly to the light many facts which bear on a correct understanding of East and West. It shows how ruthless has been the treatment which China has received at foreign hands. A severe indictment is given of the intrigue and secret diplomacy going on in Peking and Tokio, and the author divides the blame for this about equally. The book is a stirring appeal for justice and attacks the self-complacencies of modern religion. It is the most complete discussion of China's foreign entanglements, and the attempts at her enslavement which has yet been published.

Intellectual and Political Currents in the Far East
M. $6.00 net

The essays contained in this volume are thoughts and notes of one who has watched from day to day with the deepest interest the marvelous unfolding of a new life throughout the East. A most commendable composite view of comtemporary Oriental thought.

The Big Four and Others of the Peace Conference
M. $5.00 net
By ROBERT LANSING

In this book, the former Secretary of State studies the dominant personalities of the Conference with the same keenness and depth of understanding that he had previously displayed in his study of the Conference itself. There are four full portraits: Clemenceau, Wilson, Lloyd George, and Orlando; and four impressions: Venizelos, Emir Feisul, Gen. Botha, and Paderewski. Mr. Lansing is a keen observer of human nature, and his sketches are at once most fascinating reading, and an important contribution to history.

China To Get Square Deal On Past As Well As Future

overcoming obstacles and clearing the way for solid achievements. The fears expressed abroad of certain Powers trying to wreck the Conference are not seriously regarded, as the wreckers would only injure themselves.

Japan tenaciously clings to her demand for a ratio of 70 percent instead of 60 in capital ships as compared with Great Britain and America.

As regards China, the negotiations are progressing satisfactorily. The delegates regard the idea of regulation of the questions of extraterritoriality and mixed tribunals favorably, but declare that a thorough enquiry is necessary into the existing situation

The status of foreign post-offices in China raises the question of reconciling efficiency and security with reasonable Chinese desires, but the success of these undertakings as well as the more complex questions of financial reorganisation and disarmament will inevitably depend upon the Chinese establishing a Government able to act in the name of the whole of China.

It is pointed out that the foreign Powers, no matter how well-disposed towards China, cannot establish an independent Chinese Government, and, without financial reorganisation which is impossible except under foreign supervision, no Chinese Government can exercise authority or remain independent of the influence of the individual foreign Powers. The Chinese question is therefore not yet regarded as capable of an immediate and drastic solution.

GOES TO HER HUSBAND

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, Nov. 28.—Lady Shidehara, the wife of Baron Shidehara, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, left here for America today in order to attend in person upon her husband, who is now indisposed, though not so seriously as was feared.

REFUSE HIM VISA

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, Nov. 24.—Persons closely in touch with the diplomatic circles at Vladivostok are assured that Mr. Merkuloff, who wanted to leave Vladivostok as soon as possible "for the Washington Conference," could not satisfy his desire because the American authorities would not grant him a visa.

GERMANS MAY COME

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 27.—According to certain telegrams Germany intends to send to the Washington Conference a small economic and military delegation which will be charged with the discussion of the questions of land disarmament and, if the case arises, the question of reparations.

This mission will be authorised by the Berlin Government to give satisfactory guarantees against fresh German aggression, in conformity with the demands formulated by M. Briand.

The New York Herald emphasises that the event which has drawn most attention, apart from the initiative with regard to Germany, is President Harding's suggestion regarding the transformation of the present Conference into a permanent association. For more than a week the Japanese delegates have been talking of the possibility of making th Conference a stable institution and the Chinese have suggested an annual meeting to discuss Far Eastern affairs. It is known that Great Britain is convinced that the proposal of President Harding is the most practical means of maintaining peace.

VIVIANI NOW AGREES

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 27.—The plan of President Harding to establish an association of nations is at the moment occupying the attention of the delegates to the Conference. President Harding has not yet worked out in detail a definite plan with the members of the Advisory Council.

Interviewed by the Associated Press, M. Viviani declared that this plan to settle the great world problems had his entire approval it is not only a thought, he said, but a practical idea and the present Conference, which has already been distinguished by a great ideal, must be followed by others.

France will not hold aloof, All problems of a universal character must be resolved and we must therefore find means to do so. If some great nation defaulted, the settlement of the various questions would become much more difficult.

M. Viviani stated that President Harding's initiative would allow the whole world to take part in general reconstitution and declared that each of the Powers would find therein what it lacked by offering to the other what it possessed. M. Viviani said that he was convinced that the peoples of Europe would not think that President Harding's suggestion trespassed on the province of the League of Nations, America having a perfect right to ignore the League.

It would however be regrettable if America, wishing to ignore the League, remained isolated. But that was not the case, as thanks to the conferences suggested, she was seeking contact with the rest of the world. It matters little how the world is united: no protocol is in existence on this matter. In conclusion M. Viviani admitted the possibility of Germany being present at this Conference.

FIVE ADMIRALS AT WORK

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 26.—The Admirals of the Five Powers are actively studying the demand made by Japan for an increase in the tonnage allotted to her in the Hughes plan.

It is declared at the White House that President Harding in the event of the success of the Conference, might be inclined to propose:

1. That the interested nations might be called upon to approve the agreements obtained, that this approval might take place before the adjournment of the present Conference and that the nations might eventually comprise Germany.

2. Other Conferences of a similar nature might be called to smooth over the divergences between nations. President Harding considers in short, that the present Disarmament Conference must be followed by periodical conferences in which the nations will participate to discuss international questions.

ALL IS HARMONY

(Reuter's Special Service)

Washington, Nov. 26.—In view of the prominence given in the newspapers to the report of the differences between China and Britain at the Conference, it must be remembered that such expressions of the delegates' views were completely informal and unofficial and had not been submitted to the Conference.

What happened was that the "British Spokesman" talking to pressmen, interpreted the Root resolution in a fashion which the Chinese subsequently declared meant international control of China.

This incident is but one of several factors which a section of the press have been magnifying into a series of crisis. The latest incident being exploited by the newspapers is Lord Curzon's lecture to France but, although there are serious elements in the situation, it is certain that no fundamental change has occurred in the positions of the governments.

An authoritative British statement says that the four principles applicable to China as laid down in Mr. Elihu Root's resolution, have, in the view of the British Delegation, nothing to do with her present fiscal administration.

It is understood that the Admirals of the five Powers are giving close attention to Japan's request for modification of the tonnage allotted her under the American scheme. They are working day and night in order to expedite their report.

NO FORMAL TREATY

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Nov. 26.—A fuller report of President Harding's informal talk with the foreign delegates regarding the possibility of continuing the Conferences says that the President expressed his willingness to let the results of the present Conference and the plans for future meetings rest merely on a "Gentlemen's Agreement" among the Powers rather than on a formal treaty.

TO QUIT POST-OFFICES

Washington, Nov. 26.—The Far Eastern Committee has informally agreed to the principle of the withdrawal of foreign post-offices in China. The decision will be embodied in a resolution.

WON'T HEED JAPAN

Washington, Nov. 26.—The newspapers report that the American official experts have found nothing in Japan's figures to warrant a departure from the tonnage schedule as proposed in the Hughes plan.

TO DISCUSS POSTS

Washington, Nov. 27.—A communique states that a sub-committee has been appointed to draft a resolution for submission to the Far Eastern Committee in favor of the withdrawal of foreign post-offices in China.

It is composed of Senator Lodge, Sir Auckland Geddes, M. Viviani, Mr. Hanihara and Dr. Sze. The Extra-territoriality Committee is composed of Senator Lodge, Mr. Pearce, M. Sarraut, Signor Ricci, Mr. Hanihara, M. Wautern, Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Jonkheer van Karnebeek and Captain Vasconcellos.

HARDING PLAN PRAISED

(Reuter's Special Service)

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Harding's opinion in favor of continuing the international conference is universally approved. It is pointed out unofficially that Britain is always most anxious to participate in any movement to promote world peace.

The President's suggestion, however, is felt at the present time to be more or less of an American domestic question, concerning which it would not be proper to express an opinion until the details have been worked out, and Congress has drafted a scheme, fully approved by the American people.

KATO'S FULL STATEMENT

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 24.—The full text of Admiral Kato's statement at the second session of the Far Eastern Committee of the Washington Conference, which took place on November 19, has been received here. It reads as follows:—

(1). "It seems to the Japanese Delegation that the existing difficulties in China are not less in her domestic situation than in her external relation. We are anxious to see peace and unity re-established at the earliest possible moment, but we want to avoid all action that may be construed as intervention in the internal affairs of China. All that this Conference can achieve is, it seems to us, to adjust China as foreign relations, leaving her domestic situation to be worked out by Chinese themselves.

(2). "The Japanese Delegation wishes to assure the Chinese Delegation and the whole Conference that Japan has every desire to cultivate the happiest relations with China. We are solicitous of making whatever contributions we are capable of towards China's realisaton of her just and legitimate aspirations. We are entirely uninfluenced by a policy of territorial aggrandisement in any part of China.

"We adhere without condition or reservation to the principle of 'the open door' and 'equal opportunity' in China. We look to China in particular for the supply of raw materials essential to our industrial life and for foodstuffs as well. In the purchase of such materials from China, as in all our trade relations with that country, we do not claim any special rights or privileges, and we welcome fair and honest competition with all nations."

SHEN HEADS COMMITTEE

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 25.—President Hsu has sanctioned the appointment of Mr. Shen Juei-lin (Vice-Chairman of the Peace Treaty Commission) as Chairman of the Pacific Conference Commission.

ROOT'S IDEAS TO PREVAIL

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, Nov. 26.—Dr. Wellington Koo, in pleading China's request for tariff autonomy, asked the right to immediately raise customs tolls to twelve and one half percent pending the final formal treaty settlement. He said the need for revenue was a historical injustice and explained that the control of customs receipts was not involved in the matter.

The request was referred to a special committee of the conference which has settled down to the consideration of one subject at a time in accordance with the agenda applying to each subject in Root's four principles.

It was expected that China would present a statement of her definite desires forthwith, but this is now thought to be unlikely.

A British spokesman caused a sensation by telling correspondents that Root's principles embraced China's recognition of the consortium and pooling of railways, but this was subsequently denied and it was definitely stated that the subject has not been discussed by the conferees.

The present outlook is that the Root principles will supersede China's ten points as a method of procedure. While the lead is in American hands, it is expected that China itself will present most of the proposals, the knottier problems such as Manchuria, Shantung, etc., being left to the last after some constructive results have been achieved.

The prospect for China's obtaining tariff autonomy at least seems assured.

Briand, in bidding farewell to the conference and answering the Italian resolution hoping for an early reduction of land forces, repeated the inability of France to disarm unless Great Britain and America give their guarantee in an alliance.

Aircraft, gas, and new methods of warfare are being discussed.

BEATTY SEES PROGRESS

(Reuter's Special Service)

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Addressing the Canadian Club here today Admiral Earl Beatty said that the fact that he was able to accept their invitation indicated that as far as the Naval questions were concerned, all had gone well at Washington, and the governing principles had been universally accepted, therefore, if the Conference were to close tomorrow, it would have accomplished something towards releasing the world from the great burden of armaments.

The limits imposed were not derogatory to the dignity of the British Empire, whose prestige on the sea would be as safe in the future as in the past.

November 28, 1921

Spot bar silver was down ¼d. and forward unchanged in London on Saturday.

The New York price declined to 66¼ cents and the London-New York cross rate is 399¾.

The official rates this morning were unchanged from Saturday, but the market from the opening was very firm with banks and speculators keen sellers.

The official Sterling rate was therefore raised 1d. to 3-10, the Gold Dollar rate to 76⅛, and the Yen rate dropped to 62¾.

After the change in rates the market still ruled firm, there being sellers of Sterling at 3-10¼ for November and 3 9⅝ for December.

Gold Dollars were done at 76¾ for November and 75⅝ for December. The market closed firm at this level.

Silver advices received from London and New York are both on the easy side, but probably rates there will firm up as a result of our strong market here.

Chinese Asked To Belgian Show

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 25.—The Ministry of Commerce has telegraphed to the Chinese Chambers of Commerce throughout the country reminding them that a commercial exhibition will be opened at Brussels on April 19, 1922 and inviting them to send lists of the exhibits they are prepared to supply. Similar notifications were sent to the Silk and Porcelain Guilds.

COTTON CROP IS HALF WORLD'S EXPECTATIONS

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Nov. 4.—With the Government standing by its figures of 6,500,000 bales for this season's cotton crop, the trade is very much interested in the various ginning reports, and thoroughly believes that the Government estimate is too low by possibly a million bales. One local authority, writing on the subject, says it is hard for any experienced member of the cotton trade to believe that the total production for the season can be much less than 7,500,000 bales of lint cotton, making a commercial crop from this year's production not far from 8,000,000 bales.

But, added this writer, it is well to remember that even a yield of this size is less than one-half of the quantity which the world would today require from the United States yearly if the world's sumption of cotton were anything like normal, and he thinks there are evidences that the population of the world is gradually producing more and thus acquiring greater purchasing power.

A prominent local trader, who has been very successful in his market operations, declares that the advent of the boll weevil over practically the entire cotton belt makes fifty-cent cotton easily a possibility within the next year or so.

LANDS LOSE FERTILITY

A Savannah publication calls attention to the fact that western cotton lands, commonly known as "black lands," are losing their fertility and will soon have to resort to commercial fertiliser if they are to keep on making cotton. The west has long had a great advantage over the east in that cotton could be produced more cheaply where fertilisers were not employed, being thus able to undersell the east. Some Texas advices says farmers are planting more wheat in certain sections than ever before, partly because of the boll weevil depredations which make cotton raising uncertain.

In Georgia, one of the banks has advertised that it did not feel that it could back farmers who did not comply with suggestions for diversifying their crops and has offered to procure seed for the planting of wheat, rye and oats. Visitors from the South claim that farmers will be in no position to plant a large acreage next spring no matter what the price may be for they will have very little money with which to buy fertiliser and have had such an experience with boll weevil this year that as a matter of self protection they will plant less cotton and more food and feedstuffs.

Some interesting sidelights on the spot situation were disclosed in the news this week. Memphis, for instance, reported that both Northern and Southern mills are actively in the market for creeks, rivers and commercial 1⅛-inch cotton. It was insisted by some buyers that there is more low middling and strict low middling white in the current crop than has been produced for a number of years, and that, by the same token, there is relatively the smallest quantity of middling white.

The official classer of the Memphis Cotton Exchange estimates that not one bale out of ten in current receipts is running as high as middling. Strict good ordinary has begun to make its appearance and it is anticipated that the percentage of this and lower grades will increase. There is said to be almost a complete absence of tinges in the crop.

INQUIRY IS SMALL

From Waco, Texas, however, advices were received to the effect that there was very little enquiry for spot cotton. The financial situation in Germany prohibits their buying, and it was said that Texas did not have sufficient cotton of the proper staple for Liverpool. Nearly all investigators agree that the Texas fields are practically clean of cotton and they look for very small ginnings from now on.

Memphis spot people complain that the buying of British Spinners in that territory is very small compared with American mills. Even the Carolina mills, it is said, have supplies that will last them less than 90 days and they must continue to buy in a large way.

The textile situation is summed up by one authority as promising good activity this winter unless garment workers decide to strike. In addition, the spring carpet and rug business has opened actively, and there has been a recovery in underwear production, with mills comfortably engaged for the balance of this year.

The largest units of wool goods production have orders in hand to keep them busy until January at least. Linen mills are running better than for two or three years and jute mill production is not falling back. Manufacturers, however, do not feel that raw silk has been fully liquidated and that consequently the silk industry is not gaining as fast as it might under other circumstances.

The attitude of many comission houses seems to be voiced pretty well by one leading firm having extensive Far Eastern connections, which says:

"Taking a broad view, we believe the influences of the near future will in the main be constructive and that as they materialise they will result in a decided strengthening of the cotton market. We believe in taking advantage of the present period of hesitation to make purchases, the market is short and manufacturers are far from having secured their supplies, so that a wave of competitive buying might be seen at any moment, if sentiment should become optimistic."

MOTHERS REST EASY AT NIGHT

Who Keep Baby's Own Tablets In The House.

Every mother knows those nights of alarm and unrest when the baby, or one or other of the older children, wakes up feverish and unwell. The problem then is what can best be done until the doctor comes in the morning.

The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, in the house feels safe, for the occasional use of these Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, and if sickness comes suddenly they help bring the little one through.

Baby's Own Tablets are an absolutely harmless remedy for simple fever, indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, croup and colds. They quickly allay the pains of teething, and bring natural soothing sleep from which the little one awakes rested and refreshed. They destroy worms. Guaranteed free from opiates and narcotics and to be positively harmless even to the youngest infant. Chemists sell Baby's Own Tablets, or post free, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai, at 60 cents the vial.

BRIAND GIVEN DOCTOR OF LAW DEGREE IN N.Y.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 25.—M. Briand yesterday visited New York University where he was ceremonially invested with the robes, insignia and cap of a Doctor of Laws. He then proceeded to the University of Columbia where he received the diploma of Doctor, presented by President Nicholas Murray Butler, who tributed to the exceptional qualities of the famous statesman, who so well represented the France of after the war.

M. Briand then visited the American Committee for the Relief of the Devastated districts of which Miss Alice Morgan is president. M. Briand passed his last evening in America at the American Lotus Club, where Mr. Melville E. Stone, the Honorary President of the Associated Press, had organised a banquet of 200 covers in his honor. Before an exceptionally brilliant assembly, the President of the Club welcomed the French Premier. The first condition of world peace, said Mr. Murray, is the establishment of the security of France. In fact, he added, this security is neither a French nor a European problem, but a world problem. All the guests cheered and shouted "Vive la France." M. Briand then gave his farewell address to the American people.

The Intransigeant notes that by a singular coincidence M. Briand replied in advance to Lord Curzon when he said yesterday at the Lotus Club banquet that the disarmament of France would be the end of peace for it would bring about the fall of the democratic Government in Germany. This last declaration by M. Briand was like a message to Germany to tell her that she had nothing to fear from France.

M. Briand seems even to have foreseen that Lord Curzon would say that it was the good understanding between the Allies which prevented the Soviets from taking Warsaw. M. Briand had just sat down when they brought to him a summary of the speech of the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

What is most striking at first sight in Lord Curzon's speech is the contrast which it presents to the declarations of Mr. Balfour in Washington in the course of the plenary sitting and later at the sitting of the committee. Lord Curzon seems to have spoken under the influence of the regret caused by the Franco-Turkish agreement.

He forgets that Great Britain supported Greece against Turkey and that it was not Allied solidarity but French aid that stopped the Russian avalanche at the gates of Warsaw in August 1920.

Happily the reception which was given M. Gounaris at London proves that Britain no longer thinks on that question as she did several months ago. There is in that a sufficient basis for the conversations, which cannot fail to take place on M. Briand's return between France and Britain on the subject of Turkey.

WAIT BRITISH NOTE

Paris, Nov. 25.—The Journal des Debats understands that the British Note on the subject of the Angora Agreement has not yet been completed and it is probable that it will not be handed to the French Government for two days yet.

RESIGNATION UNIMPORTANT

Paris, Nov. 25.—The resignation of the Angora Minister of Public Instruction, which occurred the day before that of the Minister of Public Works, had no political character. M. Weyll has been appointed Minister of Public Instruction to replace Hamdullah Bey who resigned.

WIRES SOON OPEN

Paris, Nov. 25.—The resumption of telegraphic communication between Constantinople and Angora has been decided and will take place next week.

U. S. Imports From China In Sharp Fall During Last October

American exports to China during the month of October totaled G.$8,800,000 and imports amounted to G.$8,300,000, according to cabled advices reaching the office of the American Commercial Attache here yesterday from the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Washington.

This shows a more favorable trade balance for the United States than the previous month by reason of a decrease in imports. In September exports were G.$8,800,000 and imports from China were G.$9,500,000. The decrease in imports is nearly 13 percent.

Prices in the States are irregular, the cable stated, production is increasing, but there is still considerable unemployment.

Following are the U. S.-China trade figures for the past three months:

	Exports from U. S.
August	G. $8,900,000
September	8,800,000
October	8,800,000
Total	G.$26,500,000
	Imports from China
August	G.$12,000,000
September	9,500,000
October	8,300,000
Total	G.$29,800,000

MAY PARDON SOME

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 26.—A trade union delegation, representing the workers of the Nord, was received today by the President. The delegates, who were accompanied by several deputies for the Nord, presented a petition for clemency in the case of the textile strikers, who are being prosecuted or who have already been sentenced.

On leaving the Elysee the delegates appeared to be satisfied that the President was inclined to grant pardons as far as possible in the interesting cases submitted to his clemency.

Prague Endowing Chair At Sorbonne

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 26.—The Government at Prague has made a gift to the University of Paris of a million francs in honor of the memory of Professor Ernest Denis, whom the Czecho-Slovak nation considers as one of the founders of its independence.

This amount is destined in part to the creation of a chair of "History and Civilisation" at the Sorbonne and in part to the service of an institute of Slav studies founded by Professor Ernest Denis.

The Czecho-Slovak Government expressed the desire that this institute should remain in the house in which Professor Denis lived, and has bought this property, of which it has made a gift to the University.

Curzon's Speech Rebuking France Has Sharp Critics

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Nov. 26.—Lord Curzon's speech of Nov. 24 has almost eclipsed the business of the Conference at Washington Though the delegates have refused to comment on it, the newspapers criticise very candidly the British and French statesmen for talking domestic politics when so many earnest men are trying to talk world peace.

Even the papers, which condemn what they describe as France's policy of isolation, deprecate Lord Curzon's implied rebuke as adding fuel to the Anglo-French wrangling and hope that mediating influences will avert the misfortune of the widening gap in relations between Britain and France.

The Chinese Political Stage

BY JOSEF W. HALL

AS predicted tentatively in these columns some weeks ago (all our predictions and announcements, since they deal with Chinese politics, are made subject to change without notice) the coming together of Wu Pei-fu now of Hankow and Chen Chiungming of Canton has begun. General Chen has convinced his nominal chief, Sun Yat-sen, that an entente with Wu is a good substitute for, or at least prelude to, the Doctor's northern expedition. He appears to have taken the initiative in the opening of relations with Wu, which is well, since Wu's position makes it much more difficult for him to approach Chen than Chen's makes it for him to approach Wu. Chen has recently despatched agents to visit Wu and effect an understanding with him.

General Chen has chosen a favorable time to approach Wu. Never before has the determination of Wu's great rival, Chang Tso-lin of Mukden, to control Peking and thereby China south of the great wall been more apparent than now. Chang's placing of his own men in several more ministries and departments, his strengthened military beleaguerment of the capital, and most significant of all, his recent attempt to capture the government Banks of China and Communications, success in which would make him financial master of the provinces proper, afford at the present moment a most convincing argument to Wu in favor of his accepting the advances of the southern chief. Without an alliance with Chen, Wu's prospects of keeping the Mukden warlord north of the great wall are doubtful.

"Chinese propaganda to keep up an appearance of solvency," is what persons in Consortium circles dub the stories that the government has already secretly signed up with the Consortium through Mr. J. J. Abbott for a loan secured on the Wine and Tobacco revenue and involving foreign supervision of the revenue collection.

"Consortium propaganda to make it appear that we have been forced to flee to their bosom," is what Chinese officials call the same rumors. The newspaperman meets up with about as many sincere statements in Peking as Dante met up with ice-cream cones in Inferno. And so, after hearing all sides, he falls back on David.

For David said, in his heart (it must have been after he had returned to Jerusalem after a visit to Peking) "All men are liars." Of course, such things are best said only in one's heart.

Wu Pei-fu, already in bad with his former laudators of the patriotic element, has got himself in worse by his highhanded removal, this past week, of certain officials in the railways and telegraphs who are nominally responsible to the Ministry of Communications in Peking rather than to the military chief of their district. Wu's side to the question is the side of straight military tactics, in which Wu has always shown himself ruthless and abrupt. No western military commander would allow to operate within his lines under whatever titles or in whatever positions men whom he suspected of being the agents of his enemy. Wu Pei-fu would naturally feel the same way in regard to men who were placed in Hankow by the Chang Tso-lin controlled Ministry of Communications. Proof that they were Chang Tso-lin men? Well, certainly they were not Wu Pei-fu men or they would not have refused to turn over the revenues of their departments to High Inspector Wu. And, in these days, he who is not for us is against us.

Did Wu Pei-fu control the Ministry in Peking it is not to be supposed for a moment that Chang Tso-lin would allow that Ministry to appoint men into high office in Manchuria whom Chang had not himself chosen and made sure of. And, having been the football of every military chief, the ministry should know how to submit to this latest curtailment of its authority. Before Wang Chan-yuan left Hankow he summarily replaced the head of the Hankow telegraph office with one of his staff officers, and the writer had the experience of wrangling with this man, ignorant of English and telegraphy alike, in regard to the meaning of one of his despatches which the over-suspicious officer desired to censor. The Ministry of Communications at that time made no fuss. True, it was a time of open strife. But this is a time of potential strife. And Wu Pei-fu, or any one else who is strong enough, will take the same privilege as that exercised by Wang Chan-yuan.

The Rhyming Optimist

BY ALINE MICHAELIS

The Stamp

Hail, busy little postage stamp, by whom all writers swear;
you take their work for many a tramp on journeys here and there.
They trust you with immortal stuff
they hope will bring them fame;
some editors will call it "rough"
and others "pretty tame."
But still they'll try another time,
they're never satisfied;
they gladly spend their last, lone dime to give their stuff a ride.
Though many scorn the poet's art and choose the almanac, you take much verse to every mart and bring it safely back.
With lovers, also, you're in vogue;
their letters weigh a pound,
and when Dan Cupid works the rogue needs stacks of stamps around.
So hail! Fair stamp of crimson hue,
and heed my earnest cries;
for what will all these poor chaps do when costs of postage rise?
When two-cent stamps shall sell for three,
what of the lover then,
and where will all those fellows be who push the plodding pen?
And so we'd beg the powers that be:
"Put up our meat and rolls,
but don't sell two-cent stamps for three,
to sadden simple souls!"

Anecdotes Of The Famous

The following story, which appears in an old volume of "Leigh Hunt's Journal," throws an interesting light on Charles Lamb's relations with his stricken sister, Mary:

L. and his sister were one evening supping at Mrs. M——'s. L. (with a little unwelcome assistance from another person) had made his way to the bottom of the second bottle of porter. "You really shall not have any more, Charles," said his sister "Pray, Mrs. M——, don't give him any more." "You hear what your sister says, Mr. Lamb?" observed Mrs. M——, pouring out the remains of the porter (which was thick) into his glass. "She is a person of mean capacity," said he; "I never listen to her. Try the next bottle, madame; for this is thick, and—hospitality should run fine to the last."

American, And Nansen Agreements With Soviet Russia

THE question of Russian Famine relief agreements has been exciting a good deal of interest in the European and American Press. The Soviet Government has signed agreements both with Mr. Brown, on behalf of Mr. Hoover's American Relief Administration, and with Dr. Nansen, on behalf of the International Red Cross Conference which was held in Geneva in August. It has been alleged in certain European and American papers, and the allegations have been echoed in the Far Eastern press, that, while Mr. Hoover's organisation has received adequate guarantees from the Russian Government that relief supplies will reach the persons for whom they are intended, Dr. Nansen has not.

The inaccuracy of such allegations may be seen from a comparison of the various agreements, and we give below such parts of them as have a bearing on the subject, so that readers may make the necessary comparisons for themselves. The guarantees given to the American Relief Administration are contained in a single document signed on August 20. The text of this is given below practically in full. The guarantees to Dr. Nansen are contained in three documents signed on August 27. They have been published in full in various European newspapers; and such portions are quoted below as will enable the reader to see where they are the same as, and where they differ from, the guarantees given to Mr. Hoover's organisation.

(1) The American Agreement

The following is a translation from the Russian text of the agreement between the Russian Government and Mr. Hoover's American Relief Administration:

1.—The American Relief Administration shall have the right to send into Russia the personnel necessary for its work, and the Soviet Government guarantees its freedom and security during the time of its residence in Russia. Persons, whether of American citizenship or not, who have been under arrest in Soviet Russia since 1917 may not be admitted except with the consent of the Soviet Government.

2.—At the request of the American Relief Administration the Soviet Government will, without delay, afford every facility for it and its personnel to enter Russia, and during the time of its residence in Russia the Soviet Government will assure it complete freedom of movement on official business, and will provide all necessary documents for facilitating travel by train.

3.—Absolute freedom in the selection for service of the personnel, whether Russian or otherwise, is accorded to the American Relief Administration, and the Soviet Government, on its request, will afford assistance for this object.

4.—In transmitting the supplies of the American Relief Administration to Petrograd, Murmansk, Archangel, Novorossisk, and other Russian ports by agreement between the parties, and also to ports of neighboring countries, at the discretion of the American Relief Administration, the Soviet Government shall bear all further expenses, e.g., for lighters, lading, and transport of supplies to bases in the interior within the area of the American Relief Administration's activities. If in the above-mentioned ports expense is incurred for keeping supplies, that expense will also be put to the account of the Soviet Government.

5.—The Soviet Government will on its own account, provide the necessary warehouses for storing supplies in the interior bases mentioned in Article 4, and will provide for loading and transmission of supplies from those bases to all other points in the interior, as required by the American Relief Administration.

6.—In all such cases of transmission to warehouses or removal of supplies, the Soviet Government will give the American Relief Administration priority over all other transport, as is enjoyed by its own food relief supplies, and will place at the disposition of the American Relief Administration, on its request, suitable convoys and guards.

7.—The American Relief Administration shall have the right to import and to re-export cargoes independently of their character, and they shall be exempt from requisition. In case of re-export of any cargoes, the American Relief Administration shall repay to the Soviet Government any expenses incurred in connection with such cargoes.

8.—Supplies for relief are destined only for children and the sick, at the discretion of the American Relief Administration, in accordance with Article 25, and remain the property of the American Relief Administration for distribution to such children and sick persons. They will be distributed in the name of the American Relief Administration.

9.—No one receiving a ration from the American Relief Administration shall be deprived of the local rations distributed to the rest of the population.

10.—The Soviet Government guarantees, and will take every measure to ensure, that supplies belonging to the American Relief Administration do not go to the adult population, particularly the army, navy, and Government servants, but only to those persons named in Articles 8 and 25.

11.—The Soviet Government undertakes to repay in dollars, at the exchange rate of the franc, or in kind, the value of all cargoes which are used in unlawful ways.

12.—For carrying out the task undertaken by it, the American Relief Administration shall have the right to create the necessary organisations free from Government or any other interference. The central and local Soviet organs shall have the right to be represented on them.

13.—The Soviet Government guarantees: (a) the necessary premises for kitchens, distributing stations, and, as far as possible, hospitals; (b) the necessary fuel and, if possible, appliances for cooking, distributing, and feeding; (c) all expenditure on local relief administration, the preparation and distribution of food, &c. (d) at the request of the American Relief Administration, the local medical personnel for relief required for the adequate giving Administration, in so far as it is required for the adequate giving of relief; (e) free use of railways, motorcars, water and other means of communication necessary for the transport of supplies and for the personnel required for the control of operations. The Soviet Government will provide for the use of the personnel of the American Relief Administration, throughout the whole period of its activities, free transport in accordance with the reasonable demands of the American Relief Administration.

14. In the local activities of the American Relief Administration, where there are epidemics the Soviet Government authorises it to take all such steps as may prove necessary for improving sanitation, the water supply, etc.

15. The Soviet Government guarantees free to the American Relief Administration for its work the necessary offices, garages, warehouses, and also, if possible, furniture, lighting, and water. Further, it will place at the disposal of the American Relief Administration suitable lodgings for its personnel in all places where the American Relief Administration shall work. All such lodgings shall be free from requisition. Search may be made in such lodgings only on the order and in the presence of the chief of the American Relief Administration or his representative, and only in the case of "flagrant delit."

16. The American Relief Administration shall have complete freedom and priority in the use, without payment, of the existing wireless, telegraphs, telephones, cables, post, and couriers in Russia.....

17. The American Relief Administration and its representatives and couriers shall enjoy the usual diplomatic privileges on crossing the frontiers.

19. The Soviet Government undertakes to supply, on request of the competent organs of the American Relief Administration, free transport for the personnel of the American Relief Administration with luggage and food supplies.

21. The Soviet Government will inform the Russian people of the objects and methods of the work of the American Relief Administration, in order that it may accomplish that work rapidly and fruitfully, and, further, it will communicate to the American people authentic and non-political information regarding existing conditions and the progress of relief work in order to facilitate financial support in America.

22. The Soviet Government shall bear all expenses of organising relief with the exception of: (a) the cost of food cargoes and of their delivery at the ports (vide Article 4); (b) the actual expenses involved in the American control and supervision in Russia, with the above-mentioned exceptions. In general, the Soviet Government shall give every assistance to the American Relief Administration for carrying on its humanitarian activities in relief work.

23. The American Relief Administration undertakes, within the limits of possibility and of its existing resources, as soon as a satisfactory organisation has been created, to begin the distribution of food, clothing, and medicine to sick persons, and particularly to children, the age limit to be fixed by the American Relief Administration.

24. The distribution of commodities to children and sick persons shall be made without reference to their nationality and religion, social condition and political views.

25. The personnel of the American Relief Administration shall devote itself exclusively to work connected with relief, and shall not engage in any political and commercial activities. In view of Article 1, and of the exemption of the American personnel in Russia from search, arrest, and detention, all officials of the American Relief Administration who violate this condition will be dismissed on the request of the central Soviet Government.....

26. The American Relief Administration shall carry on its work in those places where, in its opinion, such work will prove most productive, and where it may give the best results. The American Relief Administration has as its main object the providing of relief for the famine in the Volga provinces.

27. Alcohol shall not be included in the supplies of the American Relief Administration and the American Relief Administration will allow customs examination of all imported supplies at places which will be established by mutual agreement. In view of the fact that the Soviet Government agreed, as a preliminary condition, that a sine qua non of all relief on the side of the American people was the release of all Americans in Russia, and the according of facilities for leaving Russia to all Americans wishing to do so the American Relief Administration retains the right temporarily to suspend or completely to discontinue all its relief work in Russia in case the Soviet Government shall not completely carry out that preliminary condition or any of the other conditions laid down in the present agreement. Similarly, the Soviet Government retains the right to repudiate the present agreement in case the American Relief Administration shall not carry out any of the afore-mentioned conditions.

(2) Dr. Nansen's Agreement

There are, as we said, three agreements which the Russian Government signed with Dr. Nansen. One records a request from the Russian Government that Dr. Nansen shall ask the Government of Europe for credits amounting to £10,000,000 for famine relief, and pledges the Russian Government to assume the obligations demanded of it. This agreement, it will be seen, has no counterpart at all in the American agreement; it, in fact, deals with a totally different subject from philanthropic relief. It is independent of the other two agreements, which can alone be compared with the American agreement and contain the guarantees with regard to the administration of relief from the Red Cross organisations. The first of these two agreements deals generally with the organisation of relief, and the full text is as follows:

Dr. Nansen, High Commissioner for Russian Relief, appointed by the Conference held at Geneva on August 15, 1921, and Mr. Chicherin, the people's Commissary for Foreign Affairs, representing the Russian Soviet Government, have agreed upon the following principles of European voluntary effort to help the famine-stricken population in Russia:

1. A committee shall be formed in Moscow, which shall be called the "International Russian Relief Executive," consisting of one representative of Dr. Nansen, acting on behalf of the International Relief Conference, Geneva, and one representative of the Russian Government.

2. The I.R.R.E. shall alone decide with regard to the distribution of supplies sent to Russia by the I.R.C.G., or any other organisation acting in conjunction with it.

3. The supplies sent so to Russia shall remain the absolute property of the I.R.C.G. until their final distribution.

4. All supplies sent to the I.R.R.E. for distribution will be delivered free at the Russian frontier.

5. In the case of supplies sent by sea of Russian ports, the Russian Government undertakes to secure the discharge in accordance with ordinary commercial conditions. In case of failure in this respect the Russian Government will bear the liability for the consequent expense.

6. The Russian Government undertakes to transport free of cost all supplies from the Russian frontier to the distributing centers. The I.R.R.E. shall have the right to supervise the transport of these supplies.

7. The I.R.R.E. shall decide the general lines on which the detailed relief action shall be carried out, and for this the Russo-American agreement of the 20th August, 1921, shall serve as basis.

8. In the interests of systematic distribution, and of the best possible use of transport facilities, the Russian Government undertakes to make use as far as possible of the I. R. R. E. for distribution of all free gifts sent from outside Russia to relieve the famine, and to inform the I. R. R. E. of all such free gifts of whatever origin sent from outside Russia for that purpose. (This does not affect the arrangements already made between the Russian Government and the American Relief Administration.)

Made in Moscow, August 27th, 1921.

(Signed) Georges T. Chicherin
Fritjof Nansen

The second agreement deals in detail with the system of distributing relief; it contains 15 clauses, the majority of which follow word for word the text of the American agreement given above. The following analysis will enable the reader to see the resemblances and discrepancies in the guarantees given to Mr. Hoover and to Dr. Nansen:

Clause 1 of the Nansen agreement contains the same stipulations as clauses 1 and 3 of the American.

Clause 2 of the Nansen agreement repeats Clause 4 of the American.

Clause 3 of the Nansen agreement is the same as Clause 5 of the American.

Clause 3 (a) of the Nansen agreement is the same as Clause 3 of the American.

Clause 4 of Dr. Nansen's agreement is the same as Clause 6 of the American.

Clauses 5-13 in Dr. Nansen's agreement follow Clauses 13-21 of the American, and Clauses 14 and 15 of Dr. Nansen's are the same, mutatis mutandis, as Clauses 25 and 27 of the American.

To sum up, the only clauses in the American agreement which are not in Dr. Nansen's are 7-12, 22, 23, 24 and 26. On the other hand, Clause (1) in the agreement on credits mentioned above guarantees to Dr. Nansen the same facilities as are afforded to the American Relief Administration under Clauses 7 and 23, so that actually the only guarantees which have been given to Mr. Hoover and not to Dr. Nansen are those contained in Clauses 8-12, 22, 24, and 26, and even these are to some extent covered by Clauese 3 and 7 in the general agreement given above.

Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

Chita Puts Law Enactments Up To The People

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita (by mail), Nov. 15, 1921.—At yesterday's session of the National Assembly, the Secretary read all the laws enacted by the Government during the interval between the first and the present sessions of the Assembly. All the decisions and laws made by the Government during this period were turned over to the committees concerned, subject to rejection or passage.

After this, Mr. Nikiforoff, the Chairman of the Council of Ministers, delivered a speech on the external situation and the economic hardships experienced by the republic during the suspension of the assembly. In the speech it is stated that the republic has been and still is surrounded by a tight ring of economic and political blockade, notwithstanding the fact that the Government has made friendly overtures to America, England, France and Japan. Even China has limited herself to the expression of formal congratulations. Mr. Nikiforoff refers to the activities of Ungern's bandits from the direction of Mongolia, accusing Japan of helping these bandits openly.

With the opening of the Dairen and Washington Conferences, says the speech, the political blockade has been lifted. Japan was mistaken in thinking that the Government of the Far Eastern Republic would go to any extent in meeting the demands of Japan for its recognition of the Far Eastern Republic. Mr. Nikiforoff is optimistic about the pains taken by the Washington Conference in respect to the Far Eastern Republic, declaring that Japan was afraid to go to the limit of her aggression for fear of the Washington Conference which has forced Japan to open direct negotiation with the Far Eastern Republic.

GUESTS AT CONFERENCE

Mr. Nikiforoff is of the opinion that the Russian Delegation which has left for Washington in the capacity of guests to the Washington Conference will have to be taken more seriously and that eventually negotiations will have to be opened with the Russian Delegation.

Regarding relations with China, Mr. Nikiforoff thinks that the efforts of the Russian Government have achieved but little result. He declares that the Chinese Government does not pay enough attention to the appeals of its most friendly neighbor, but in view of her almost similar international position, she will be obliged to grasp our hand when she will see that nobody else is stretching forth a friendly hand.

Turning to the question of Mongolia, Mr. Nikiforoff says that with the complete annihilation of the reactionary bandits in Mongolia, the Far Eastern Republic, besides helping the people of Mongolia has helped herself and China to get rid of bandits which stood in the way of the establishment of true friendly relations between China and the Far Eastern Republic.

FRIENDLY TO SOVIET

The relation between the Far Eastern Republic and Soviet Russia, says Mr. Nikiforoff, is especially close and friendly as Soviet Russia has extended to her weaker sister republic both material and moral help to the extent it can afford under the present condition. Therefore, it is the duty of the Far Eastern Republic to ward off some blows intended for Soviet Russia.

Mr. Nikiforoff declares that the internal policy of the Government depends upon the foreign blockade. With the lifting of the foreign political and economical blockade, the restrictions within the country are also lifted in proportion. The legal rights of the citizens have not yet been definitely established by law, but the Government is now leaving the task of enacting these laws to the National Assembly.

The land question is the most difficult to solve and it will take many years before it will be satisfactorily settled. For the time being the Assembly is called upon to elaborate the fundamental laws of land-ownership, leaving the details to the Government.

CUTS GOVERNMENT COSTS

As to public economy the Government has definitely established what is produced and what is consumed by the republic as well as its resources. In order to curtail the expenditure of the state the Government has reduced the number of employes of the various government departments and is continuing the reduction.

As to taxation, it should be built upon direct and progressive taxation. At present the Government is compelled to keep to indirect taxation, which necessitates the custom duties.

The Government thinks it dangerous to allow foreign commercial capital to exceed the native capital. Only articles of prime necessity are allowed to be imported. No articles of luxury, or articles which are being manufactured in the country, are permitted to enter the country. Only industries and enterprises profitable to the nation are retained by the state. The Government will support by all means the home industry.

Mr. Nikiforoff concluded his speech by the following words:

"The Government proposes to you to judge for yourselves the activities of the Government, and we hope that you will not demand of us the impossible."

TEXACO

TEXACO CRATER COMPOUND

The Great Gear Lubricant

Texaco Crater Compound is a special lubricant for heavy gears and wire rope. It preserves gears; shields them from dust and dirt, prevents friction, and eliminates machinery noise. Use "Crater" on all heavy gears working under conditions of extreme pressure. It clings to gear teeth when nothing else will, but is fluid enough to allow free lubrication.

As a preservative for wire rope and chains, Texaco Crater Compound is invaluable. It forms a film of lubricant which protects from the action of weather, chemical fumes and contaminated water.

Wire rope and chains coated with "Crater" will last twice as long.
